Sponsors Canned Food Collection

The S. J. A. Parents Club will sponsor a canned food collection week from May 12 to 19, in connection with the drive of the Nat. Catholic Welfare Council; the proceeds of which will be shipped to the starving people of war torn lands. Mrs. Lucien Gex is chairman of the drive. Ladies of the parish will canvass the homes for donations. Large boxes will also be installed at the grocery stores and Magnolia State Supply Co. for your convenience in donating. All canned and packaged foods are acceptable, but nothing in glass jars can be packed and shipped.

Anyone wishing to contribute cans of food, but unable to deliver them personally may call Mrs. Gex at 259 or 696-J, and arrangements will be made to have the donation called for. Anyone preferring to make cash donations will please contact Mrs. Gex who will see that canned foods are purchased. It is hardly necessary to add to the appeals made over the radio and in newspapers for your fullest cooperation in behalf of these pitiful people who so desperately need food and are looking expectantly to us for the means of their very existence.

Piano Recital at S. J. A.

The music department of S. J. A. is all astir these days in anticipation of the coming recital to be held in St. Joseph Memorial Hall on Wednesday, May 15, at 8 p. m.

Children's busy little fingers are running up and down the keyboard of the lovely new Spinet piano that has arrived just in time to make its first appearance for this occasion. Much effort is being expended by the little ones to prepare a musical treat for their parents and many friends whom they will gladly welcome on that red letter day.

The climax of the evening's program will be reached when Miss Irma Mae Kenney, the charming and attractive daughter of the Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kenney, will be presented to make her debut. Not only in music does Irma excel, but she has a gracious manner and winning smile have made her a general favorite among her classmates and teachers at St. Joseph.

Our young artist's musical numbers are wide in scope, covering compositions from the earliest masters even to the modern composers.

Her program is as follows: Sonata IX in F Major—Mozart. Two-Part Invention—Bach. Aragonaise—J. Massenet. Nocturne Op 54 No. 4—Ed Greig. Polonaise in A flat Major—Chopin.

Music lovers generally, are cordially invited to attend this recital which promises to be an artistic event.

The St. Stanislaus Sidelines Club will hold a special meeting on Friday, May 10th at 7:30 p. m. in the college recreation room. There are two very good reasons why all members should be present—to welcome Pete Burge who has returned to his old job as head coach—and to view the moving pictures of the 1946 Sugar Bowl game between Oklahoma A. & M. and St. Mary's College. We all remember the most thrilling of all the Sugar Bowl games and the pictures are well worth seeing.

All former members of the Sidelines Club who have returned from the armed forces are cordially invited to be present.

MOTHER'S DAY

JUST as the glorious month of May has been generously dedicated to Christ's mother, the Blessed Virgin, similarly has the second Sunday in May been appointed for the honoring of motherhood and the loving remembrance of one's Mother. Mother's Day is one of the greatest days of the entire year, especially in the home, and we should strive to make it actually so by honoring our own individual mothers and setting aside a few minutes of our time for prayer.

Stop a moment and think this over: How our mothers deprived themselves of those countless little things merely to satisfy our every whim. How, when we were involved in trouble, we always sought her protection and she never hesitated in giving it to us. And lastly, how she even went as far as to sacrifice our presence in the home in order that we may acquire a suitable education and profit by its results.

Are we going to leave these actions unpaid? Certainly not! Now the time has arrived when we should commence to repay her for at least a small portion of what she has so unselfishly given us. Be respectable, polite, and honest with her, give her all the satisfaction expected from a sincere son, and above all, pray for both her physical and spiritual welfare. We may pray mentally and perform other such interior acts pertaining to our soul and mind, but it is always better to do more. You may show remembrance of your tender mother by sending her a telegram presenting her a beautiful bouquet of sweet aromatic flowers, or even writing her a small letter telling of your love for her.

Besides observing Mother's Day on Sunday ask our Lord that you may cultivate a deeper love for her. Be sure to offer your next Mass and Communion for the special intention of your mother, whether she be living or dead.

Always remember and never forget this quotation taken from the Good Book: "Honor thy father and mother; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest be long lived upon earth."—St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaw.

Regular Monthly Meeting of Board of Kings Daughters Hospital

The regular meeting of the Board of the Kings Daughters Hospital was held at the hospital on Monday, May 6 with a full attendance. Plans were discussed and completed for the annual miscellaneous shower to be held at the hospital on Monday, May 13 from 2 to 5. This is the public's cordial invitation to attend this shower.

Permanent residents of Bay St. Louis can remember the great disadvantage and danger of emergency cases and accident cases being rushed to out of town hospitals and often times reaching there too late. Every one felt that there must be something that could be done but no one took issue about it until 1923 when a Kings Daughters Circle was formed here with Mrs. A. F. Fournier as president and almost immediate action was taken for the opening of a hospital then known as an Emergency Hospital and the late Dr. War allowed the use of the upstairs of his home on Main street. The first patient was admitted in June of 1923.

Today you have an institution fully equipped with X-Ray, Oxygen tent, operating room, a corps of skill-

"MY REPUTATION" AT A. & G. THEATRE SUNDAY-MONDAY

The warmly moving story of a beautiful woman's desperate search for happiness, is grippingly told in Warner Bros.' latest film drama, "My Reputation," which opens Sunday at the A. & G. Theatre. Starring Barbara Stanwyck, the film features a generally excellent company of supporting players including George Brent, Lucile Watson, Warner Anderson, John Ridgely and Eve Arden.

Adapted for the screen by Catherine Turney from the best-selling novel, "Instruct My Sorrows," by Clare Jaynes, "My Reputation" relates the heartrending saga of one woman's second chance at love and of the vicious scandal that brings heartache into her life and the life of her family. As Jess Drummond, attractive young widow, mother of two lovable boys, Barbara Stanwyck plays another highly dramatic role of the sort which aided her rise to fame.

Stirring directed by hit-maker Curtis Mernhardt and scored by Max Steiner, "My Reputation" was photographed by James Wong Howe, A. S. C. and produced by Henry Blanke.

ORTTE THEATRE SUNDAY-MONDAY "BAD BASCOMB"

Wallace Beery, Margaret
O'Brien with Marjorie Main
And J. Carol Naish

Not since the early Wallace Beery-Jackie Cooper pictures has as delightful a team been seen in the Ortte Theatre as that presented in the new M-G-M outland drama, "Bad Bascomb," co-starring Wallace Beery and little Margaret O'Brien, this Sunday and Monday at Ortte Theatre.

Both the veteran Beery and the tiny child actress have tailor-made roles in this compelling story of a two-gun bandit sought by the constabulary of three states, who meets his match in the love of a orphan traveling across Wyoming with a caravan of Mormons.

It is with this caravan that Zeb Bascomb (Beery) and his fellow-bandit, Bart Yancy (J. Carol Naish), try to hide their identities when they find themselves pursued by a posse after attempting to hold up a bank. Since it is a rule that every man of the caravan must help and protect the women without menfolk, Bascomb finds him self in the amusing process of being domesticated by the henpecking Abbey Yanks, played to the hilt by Marjorie Main, and her lovable granddaughter, Emmy (Margaret O'Brien.)

Little Emmy, having decided that she is going to marry Bascomb when she grows up, makes herself something more than a nuisance when she interferes with the efforts of the bandit and his henchman to steal a bag of gold held by the Mormons. So penetrating is her influence, however, that the hardened Bascomb is ultimately led to sacrifice his freedom when he leads a spectacular night against a band of marauding Indians and saves the caravan from annihilation.

Beery is his usual master of the Bad Man role, with little Miss O'Brien completely appealing and captivating as the youngster who is unimpressed by his toughness. Their teaming is a highlight of one of the year's most entertaining screen offerings.

Little Theatre Notes

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre Guild is happy to announce that it now has a roof over its head and that beginning with the coming play, all productions will be given in its new home. Since a Little Theatre is essentially a civic organization and an asset to any community, it will be of general interest to citizens of Bay Saint Louis and Waveland to know that the building in question is a red frame structure on Carroll avenue, formerly used by Bay High Athletic teams for dressing rooms and storage of equipment. The land, belonging to the McDonald family, was leased to Bay High School and the building, which was erected by the school, has been generously offered by the school board for Little Theatre use until the expiration of the lease.

General practice all over America apparently decrees that Little Theatres begin by renovating an old barn or a deserted depot for their use and in this respect Bay Saint Louis has followed suit. For the past two weeks the old red building has been undergoing drastic changes at the hands of active Guild members determined to transform it into a theater to be proud of. Salvage paper had been stored in it during the war, and cleaning it out presented the first problem. The building was knee-deep in grass, it was not wired at all for electricity, the windows were unscreened and there was no water. But the grass has been cut; brooms, soap flakes and water carried in pails from a nearby home accomplished the cleaning; and two electricians who are members of the Guild have completed all the necessary wiring, even to installing a six-circuit light switch so that there can be footlights, overhead lights, etc. Two other members are donating screen for the windows, and another door and additional windows are soon to be cut. The city officials have agreed to put in water, and a telephone has already been installed. Lumber has been delivered for building the stage, and carpenters will be at work on that necessity by the time this paper goes to print. The school board has donated seventy-five chairs for the audience, and a visitor in town, who is professionally interested in Little Theatre work, has offered for the walls several photographs of famous actors, some of them autographed.

Though much has been accomplished already, there is a great deal of work to be done before the next play can be presented on May 27th. All members are urged to volunteer their services, even for a short time, not only because help is really needed, but because anyone who does help at this important time will inevitably feel a sense of personal pride in the results achieved. Help is asked of anyone, whether he is a member of the Theater Guild or not, who may have a piece of old, unused furniture he would be glad to donate to the Guild's collection of stage properties. A sofa is particularly needed, but any furnishings at all will be greatly appreciated—furniture, draperies, pictures, cushions, books, etc. Cups and saucers are needed, also, as the Guild intends to serve coffee to the audience after each performance. Flowers and shrubs are to be planted around the building and at the entrance and any plants or labor for planting them will be most welcome. This undertaking is something which should become a permanent part of Bay Saint Louis and any civic-minded citizen's support will surely be repaid by his satisfaction in watching the Theater Guild develop into a real asset to the community. Any offers of help or applications for new membership should be made to Mrs. John Bell or to Mrs. C. D. Blair. Membership is still open for active or sustaining members at the yearly fee of three dollars.

The play to be presented on May 27th is the popular three-act comedy, "The Male Animal," which enjoyed a long run on Broadway and which was adapted by Hollywood into a most successful movie. The cast of characters will be announced next week. Watch for it. And in the meantime, is there anything you can do?

Bay High Dramatic Club Presents "Little Women"

The Bay High Dramatic Club presented its members on Friday evening in a presentation of Louisa M. Alcott's ever young book "Little Women." The play was directed by Miss Mary Beth Stoner and was well cast and well acted. A special comment must be made of the perfect manner in which these young people said their lines. Not once did one of them pause for a word. In other words they needed no prompting and at no time did the audience wait for the next word. Their costumes were up to the minute in timing and it would be difficult to single out any one of the girls as to their part in the play. The older generation was carried back to the days when they laughed and wept over Little Women and they enjoyed the rendition of it.

The following was the cast of characters: Meg: Mary Ann Siemens; Jo, Gloria Carr; Amy, Julia Burns; Beth, Lanell Price; Mrs. March (Maumee), Louise Crutchfield; Aunt March, Audrey Mays; Hannah, Gerry Haas; Sallie Moffat, Myrtle Oliver; Aunt Carroll, Louella Capdepon. The following committee helped make the play the success it was: Publicity, Carol Moran, chairman, Ruth Kirt, Joyce Robert and Dorothy Jean Rogers; Stage Crew, Mary Margaret Johnston, Joycelyn Bourgeois, Betty Lois Carver and Betty June Moran; Ushers: Georgie Ladner, Dorothy Jean Rogers, Evelyn Taylor, Irene Frickie, Eva Allen, Nell Odum, Joycelyn Bourgeois, Clementine Taylor, Gracie Jones and Gladys Patch.

The play was from a special script where only girls were used though sometimes the play has been written with the several male characters who appear in the book.

Class II Slaughterers Losing Permits Have Until May 15 To Secure Duplicate

OPA Area Price Control Board, Gulfport, is in receipt of a bulletin from Major W. E. Holcomb, OPA District Director, Jackson, stating that Class II Slaughterers who may have lost or misplaced the slaughter permits issued them by OPA have until May 15 to apply to the Jackson District Office for a duplicate. After this date such slaughterers are not permitted to continue operations without a permit showing their quotas, it was added.

Under the joint slaughter control program by the Department of Agriculture and OPA now in effect, slaughterers are permitted to kill as many cattle and calves during any monthly period as they did for the same time in 1944. Major Holcomb explained, but will be restricted to 80 per cent of their hog slaughter. Major Holcomb pointed out that all classes of slaughterers subject to quota restrictions are required to keep complete records of their slaughtering operations. Federal inspectors are required to report to the Department of Agriculture, while every non-Federally inspected plant other than farm slaughterers must, within 10 days after the end of the each month period, file a report with the OPA District Office.

Class II Slaughterers were defined by Major Holcomb as those who slaughter or have custom slaughtered, calves, cattle, or hogs in non-Federally inspected plants.

Class III slaughterers, farmers who sell or transfer no more than 6,000 pounds of meat per year from their own livestock, do not have to make a report to OPA.
